THE PARADE ON THE FOURTH

Fine Showing of the City's Industries and Business Resources Promised.

Arrangements for the Rendezvous of Many Divisions and Position in Line Each Display Will Have-Marshals and Their Assistants.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade committee, last night, having them in charge, final arrangements were made for the demonstration on the Fourth. A letter was read from J. C. Shaffer, manager of the street-car company, which corporation had been invited to take part. He wrote that the nature of the company's business prevented it from participating in the procession, but it would, if agreeable, furnish two brass bands for the day's celebration, a proposition that was theerfully accepted. The following additional firms, making a total of 220, have signified their intention of being in line, and to furnish wagons or floats, numbering from one to ten:

Indianapolis Manufacturers' and Carpenters' Union, C. H. Black Manufacturing Company, Bryant & Dierdorf, Behrent Bros., Daul. Stewart, Schnull & Co., J. C. Perry, D. The outlook now is that the procession will be a great success, the industrial feature be-ing even larger than was anticipated.

Want to Regulate the Games.

The Methodist ministers met yesterday morning. Some time ago they appointed a committee of three to consult with ministers of other denominations and to take action toward the suppression of Sunday base-ball playing. Drs. Rondthaler and Hunter, members of the Presbyterian committee, were on hand. Last week Dr. Mc-Leod suggested that the movement be against Sunday playing only, but yesterday Dr. S. A. Kean denounced the week-day games as well as the Sunday ones, and said the game was having a pernicious influence and should be stamped out. Dr. Ford was of opinion that ministers should not get the reputation of desiring to take away amusements from the people. A committee consisting of Dr. Ford, Dr. Keen and Rev. W. F. Sheridan was appointed to act with the Presbyterian committee. The meeting then adjourned, after electing the following officers, to meet next September: President, F. S. Tincher; vice-president, J. M. Bailey; secretary, W. M. Whitset: executive committee. Tr. M. Whitset: executive committee, Dr. Gillette, M. B. Hyde, C. W. Tinsley.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

A Woman Has a Leg Broken in Trying to Get Away from an Enemy. Lottie Brackenridge, a domestic at the residence of E. H. Eldridge, and who has a home with her brother, at No. 296 Spring street, became involved in a dispute, yesterday afternoon, with another domestic, living with Mrs. Prettyman, No. 280 North Alabama street. They came to blows, and in her endeavors to climb a fence to escape the continued assault of her enemy, the Brackenridge woman broke her right leg just above the ankle. She was taken to the City Hospital in Flanner & Buchanan's ambulance. Both women were colored, and resorted to muscle to settle a difficulty of a private nature.

Capsized in White River. William H. Eden, Bud Dietz, Gil Dietz and Theodor's Stenzel started on a fishing expedition on Sunday. When twelve miles down the river the boat in which they were capsized, and all their outfit, with guns, fishing-tackle, etc., valued at $200, was lost. Eden was struck by the boat and badly bruised about the head and arms.

Bitten by a Blood-Hound. Matthew Gayton, a colored man, received, yesterday, several flesh-wounds from a blood-hound, with which he had been playing, in the rear of Lynn Joyce's saloon, No. 206 West Washington street. The beast tore his right arm and inflicted other wounds about his body before it could be driven off. Gayton will recover.

Fell from a Pear Tree. Bessie West, nine years of age, and living at the corner of North and Mississippi streets, suffered an injury to the spine yesterday afternoon by falling from a pear tree. The accident occurred at No. 433 North Illinois street, from which place she was taken home in Kregelo's ambulance.

Taken to the Hospital. Albert O'Connell, a stranger in the city, was found yesterday afternoon in an unconscious condition, on the corner of Cali-fornia and Chesapeake streets. He was taken to the City Hospital.

His Hand Amputated. Stephen Hughes, living at No. 118 West Ohio street, had a hand crushed yesterday, while working with ice-blocks. It was amputated at the City Dispensary.

Appointed by the Postmaster.

Oscar Newton Wilmington, who was removed from the postoffice four years ago, charged by Pestmaster Jones with "pernicious activity" in politics, has been appointed to succeed William Morgan, registered-letter clerk, resigned. Mr. Wilmington is restored to the service under the rule which makes it lawful to reappoint any old soldier without examination. John W. Tutewiler has been appointed to a new place made in the money-order department, an appointment which does not come under civil-service rules.

Articles of Incorporation.

The Farmers' Bank, of Princeton, filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State yesterday. It has a capital stock of $50,000, and the following officers: President. William D. Downey, and cashier, Samuel Hargrave. The Hackelman Mining Company, of Liberty township, Grant county, has also filed articles. The com-pany has $3,000 capital stock, and proposes to bore for natural gas, oil and mineral water. Its affairs will be managed by a board of three directors: Silas Spurgeon, Eli Goodwin and Jeremiah Hartley.

Will Open an Office. Dr. Yancey, who claims to be the State Oil Inspector, will open an office at No. 76 South Meridian street, to-morrow. He has sent out a circular to merchants throughout the State, informing them of the location of his headquarters, and will expect them to call upon him to inspect their oil. As he holds a commission from the Governor, he will have persons arrested who are inspecting oils with nothing for their authority for so doing but an election by the last Legislature.

The Police Commissioners,

The Board of Police Commissioners held a brief meeting last night. The secretary's eport showed a total of 308 arrests for June, of which 271 were white and 37 colored. Of these 281 were males and 27 females 89 of the whole number being under twenty years of age. Special police powers were conferred on John Ittenback, at St. Mary's Church, and Thomas Burk, at the tile-works. G. L. Craven was made Merchant policeman, and William Gaston

DOINGS OF COUNCILMEN.

They Spend Several Hours in Trying to Clear

an Overcrowded Calendar. Twenty-four members of the City Council sweltered in their unventilated room of the court-house basement until nearly midnight last night, and then adjourned without having disposed of all the routine matters before them. But little business general interest to the public transacted, more than half the session being consumed by the passage of the monthly appropriation ordinance, and the opening and referring of proposals for public work. A communication from the Board of County Commissioners, announcing that that body had appointed James L. Williams meat inspector and John R. Fohl assistant, led to a discussion as to who had the right to appoint those officers under the new beef-inspection law. Until that question was determined, it was decided not to apon health submitted a report recommending that the Council appoint John R. Fohl chief inspector and J. L. Williams assistant. After a long discussion it was deemed advisable for the committee to meet the County Commissioners and see if a compromise of some kind could not be reached, and with the understanding that that would be done the whole subject was laid over until the next meeting.

Two propositions, designed to give the Citizens' Street-railroad Company an opportunity to further improve its service, were presented. The first was by Council-man Darnell, expressed in the following prove of the action of the commissioners. The Republicans of the Council committee

Whereas, There is a demand from the people of the city of Indianapolis for new and improved motive power for street-cars, and for more zapid transit by the street-railroad company; and Whereas, Certain persons claim to have in-vented an improved method of propelling streetcars by means of an electric storage battery and are proposing to furnish cars constructed for such purpose to the Citizens' Street railroad Company of Indianapolis, to be used on the tracks of said company in the operation of its lines of roads, and Whereas, It is desirable to have the cars of said street railroad propelled by such power, if prac-

Whereas, Said Citizens' Street-railroad Company has not now any authority to use cars pro-pelled by any power other than animal power, Now, therefore, Be it resolved by the Common Council and Board of Aldermen of the city of Indianapolis, that consent, authority and permission is hereby given and granted to the Citizens' Street-railroad Company to use cars propelled by the means of electric storage battery in the operation of lines of street railroad, in addition to animal power. The acceptance of this grant and authority shall not in any way impair or interfere with the right of said company to use animal power on any of its lines of street railroad, or of any other rights of said company heretofore given or granted by said city of Indianapolis.

In presenting the resolution Councilman

Darnell stated that a gentleman from the East had been in the city asking for the privilege of testing the storage battery upon the street railroad lines and that the officers of the Citizens' company were auxious to have the test made, with a view to adopting the motor if it proved successful. The second proposition was presented by Councilman Elliott, and asked that the Citizens' company be given authority to build an electric line to Brightwood. The people of the suburb, he said, wanted it, and the company, he understood, was willing to construct it. Both resolutions were referred to the city attorney, who reported them back, recommending that they be carefully considered before being passed, as there was no limit in either as to the time the electric franchise was to run, and that there was no provision requiring the company to keep streets in repair. Both resolutions were then referred to the committee on 'railroads and the city-

The question of public light received its usual passing notice. The committee appointed to find out whether the vapor lights could be dispensed with was not ready to report, and was continued. The standing committee on light reported that discontinued eighty-seven more gas lamps in the territory now lighted by electricity, making a total of 397 lights discontinued. The action of the Board of Aldermen in concurring in a report discontinuing a much greater number, was read, and not concurred in. This report gave Councilman Trusler epportunity to make a vicious at tack on Aldermen. Taylor and Wright, who, he said, had been attempting to place him in a false light before the public. He was personal in his remarks, and said some very severe things concerning the gentlemen named.

Among the ordinances passed was one allowing A. C. Harris and Ferdinand Winter $2,500 for legal services in attending to the city's suits that grew out of the local legislation enacted by the last General Another or nance authorized the construction of a brick barn at the City Hospital, to cost $2,000. Of that amount $1,900 is already in possession of the superintendent of the hospital, it hav-ing been accumulated in fees from pay pa-tients. Councilman Pearson introduced a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the finance committee to consult the State officers and ascertain for what amount the old State building, at the corner of Tennessee and Washington streets, can be purchased. His idea is to have the city buy the building for city purposes. The city, he said, was now paying $1,800 per year rent for the basement of the courthouse, and he thought the building referred to could be purchased for $37,000. Councilman Thalman introduced an ordinance prohibiting the keeping of swine inside the city limits, and one requiring owners of tenement-houses to keep their premises clean. A resolution introduced by Councilman Swain was adopted, authorizing the committee on water to investigate the report that the water company is discriminating against many customers. The resolution directs the committee to give public notice of a meeting, at which all persons who have grievances shall offer and make known the manner in which they have been mistreated. An ordinance was introduced providing for the paving of Michigan street, from Meridian street to Indiana avenue, with brick, and a declaratory resolution was passed calling for asphalt pavement on Pennsylvania street, from Seventh street to Pennsylvania street, from Seventh street to Exposition avenue. A resolution was adopted, authorizing the city civilengineer to employ two natural-gas inspectors.

The regular monthly report of the city clerk showed that, during the month of June, he had drawn warrants on the city treasury amounting to $83,369.12. The city engineer reported that it would cost $15,000 to widen the roadway of West Michigan street from the mill-race to White river. It was announced that the members of the Council and board would participate in the Fourth of July would participate in the Fourth of July parade, taking carriages from the courthouse at 9 o'clock. The Council adjourned to meet in special session next Monday evening, when an attempt will be made to clean the files of improvement ordinances.

THE SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.

A Spirited Interchange of Words Interrupts the Placidity of the Old Board.

The School Commissioners held something of a double meeting last night, it being the last session of the old and the first of the new board. All the members were in their places, and before the evening's work was completed they enjoyed some of the most spirited discussions that have for a long time characterized the usually prosaic sessions of the body. The secretary's report showed warrants drawn for June amounting to $139,083.47, and the treasurer's report for the same month showed a total overdraft of $120,746.52. By way of finishing the work of the old board a little routine business was transacted. The committee on text-books recommended the adoption of the revised edition of Harkness's First Year in Latin, Andrews's Manual of the Constitution in place of Martin's Civil Govern-ment, and Wentworth's Plane Geometry 1880, 8.48; 1881, 3.92; 1882, 9.35; 1883, 4.59; in place of Olney's text, which 1888, 4.73; 1889, 4.88. Total deficiency in changes were carried. Superintendent Jones, on behalf of the department of of industrial and manual training in the schools, made the annual report of work done. The first half of the year was confined to instructions in mechanical drawing and bench carpentering. At the middle of the year engines and eight wood-lathes were purchased, and instructions in woodturning were begun. Forty students entered the classes at the beginning of the year and thirty-five in the middle, and sixty have elected the work for next year. The report expressed some doubt as to the best course to pursue for those who have graduated in the work, the subject of metal-turning in that connection being consid-ered at some length. This, however, would involve an expense of $500 for tools and machinery, and while it was held to be a feasible plan, no recommendations were made. The committee on teachers and salaries recommended the following elections: J. D. McLaren, professor of biology in High-school, $1,000; J. H. Woodruff, supervisor of penmanship, $1,500; H. M. Butler, supervisor of music, $1,500. A communication from the official board of Ames M. E. Church, corner of Union street and Medison avenue petiof Union street and Madison avenue, petitioning the commissioners to permit the congregation to worship in district school building No. 6 while their church is being built, was read and rejected. Before the old board adjourned T. P. Haughey offered the following resolution:

Whereas, This meeting closes the term of service of Dr. Henry Jameson as president of this board, therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby express our appreciation of his character and work as a member of this board and his ability and fidelity as its presiding officer, and that we return to him our thanks for the uniform courtesy and consideration which he has extended to the members of this board during the time that he has presided over its deliberations.

The last words had scarcely been uttered before Mr. Frenzel took the floor, and, in an excited manner, informed the board that he would oppose the resolution. "I do not want to be misinterpreted, however," he said, "for I concur in the sentiments of the resolution deep down in my heart. But I am opposed to voting for what I know is not offered in good faith. Actions are stronger here than words, and anybody who has been in the meetings of this board knows that those who offer this resolution are not speaking what they honestly feel. I vote against it, then, because in doing so I vote against hypocrisy."
"I consider the gentleman's remarks,"

Mr. Haughey retorted, "as entirely out of order and unworthy of name I have condescended to give him. Dr. Jameson has been my family physician for over twenty years, and I dery any member of this board to point out a time when I have opposed him or his policy."

In the final vote upon the question the board, with the exception of Mr. Frenzel, supported the resolution, after which it adjourned. Clemens Vonnegut then took the chair, and the new board was organized. It consists of the following members: First It consists of the following members: First district, J. P. Frenzel; Second, T. P. Haughey; Third, Dr. F. S. Newcomer; Fourth, A. R. Baker; Fifth, John Galvin; Sixth, S. W. Loeper: Seventh, John Buddenbaum; Eighth, E. L. Williams; Ninth, Clemens Vonnegut; Tenth, J. B. Conner; Eleventh, J. H. Greenstreet. The election or officers resulted as follows:

President—J. H. Green street. Secretary—A. R. Baker. Assistant Secretary—Emma B. Ridenour. Treasurer—F. L. Williams. Building and Supply Agent-H. C. Hendrick

Attorney-Charles W. Smith. The first business transacted by the new board was concerning the salary question. That of Assistant Secretary Ridenour was raised from $1,200 to $1,500, and supply agent Hendrickson was allowed $1,600 this year for the extra amount of work necessitated by the erection of new buildings, his regu-lar salary being $1,400. J. B. Conner, A. R. Baker and J. P. Frenzel were appointed a committee on revision of rules, after which of the Carpenters. Yesterday was the time for the members of the Carpenters' and Builders' Union to notify local contractors and builders of their intention to work according to the nine-hour system or quit altogether. No such notification was served, however, and contractors are simply awaiting results.

"We do not anticipate any trouble," said one last night, "but if any such notice is served on us we will tell the men to quit work. The union isn't strong enough in this city to control a great amount of labor, and the men know it. There may be one or two small establishments in the city that would yield, but the general feeling among the contractors is to let the men make their demands and then refuse. Even if a strike should result it wouldn't amount to much, for we can get plenty of men who will work nine hours a day." Will Not Work More Than Eight Hours.

T. C. Cotton, formerly an employe on the street-cleaning force, is quoted as claiming to have been discharged by foreman Dunn because he refused to work more than eight hours a day. This, he claims, is in violation of the act of the last Legisla-ture, and for justice he intends to appeal to the City Council and, if necessary, to the courts. Received His Commission. D. W. Chambers has been commissioned as a trustee for the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

Sensational Scene in a Police Court. Kansas City, July 1.—A sensational suit had a sensational ending in Police Judge Boland's court late this afternoon. Last Friday, C. Paxson, a prominent and wealthy stock-broker, of this city, was arrested at the instance of J. J. Halpin, a brother of Maria Halpin. Halpin accused Paxson of having been criminally intimate with the former's wife. The case came to trial this afternoon before Judge Boland, and no less than four witnesses gave very criminating testimony. Judge however, announced that no case had been made, and discharged the suit.

"That's your decision, is it?" cried the enraged Halpin. "Then this is mine," and with a heavy walking stick he struck Paxson a blow on the head that rendered him unconscious. Before another blow could be inflicted Halpin was arrested by an officer present. Paxson is in a critical con-dision, but his injuries will not prove fatal. so the doctors say.

A Cave Lined with Pure Silver.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 1.—A large cave near the Hermosa mining camp, sixty miles from Las Cruces, N. M., has been opened up, and its interior found to be lined with veins of almost pure silver. It had for years escaped the eyes of old prospectors because there was nothing about the cave to indicate mineral. It is now thought the cave will exceed in richness the bridal chamber cave at Snake valley, New Mexico, from which over $500,000 in silver was taken.

NOTICE.

To Whom it May Concern:

Be it remembered, that on the 29th day of June, 1889, the following order was made by the Jadges of the Marion Superior Court, and entered of record in the records of Room 2, of said court: the records of Room 2, of said court:

Come now, Napoleon B. Taylor, Daniel Wait Howe and Lewis C. Walker, Judges of the Marion Superior Court, and it appearing that the case of Omer B. Boardman vs. Broad Ripple Natural-gas Company, and other cases, proceedings and business are now pending in the special term of said court, held in Room 2 of said court, before Daniel Wait Howe, the judge presiding in said room, and are undisposed of, and cannot, for want of time, be disposed of before the end of this term.

the end of this term,
It is therefore ordered that, for the further hearing It is therefore ordered that, for the further hearing and disposal of said cases, proceedings and business, an adjourned term of said special term of said court shall be held, beginning on the second Monday in July, 1889, and continuing until the first Monday in Sepi ember, 1889, unless such cases, proceedings and business shall be sooner disposed of, or the judge presiding in said Room 2 shall, before that time, finally adjourn such adjourned term.

And all of said pending and undisposed of cases, proceedings and business are now continued to said adjourned term.

WHEN they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and conics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life. Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an in my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much." "We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement, made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."-O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, C. A.

Wells, Druggist. "My brother, in England, was, for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation, by reason of sores on his foot. I sent him Ayer's Almanac and the testimonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while, he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia."-A. Attewell, Sharbot Lake, Ontario.
